Become a host at International House North Denmark's Expat Host Program 2017/2018

International House North Denmark is looking for potential hosts that are motivated to help newcomers in the region to get to know the Danish culture better, or increase their professional network.

The program aims at offering expatriates, accompanying spouses and new international students the opportunity to meet an experienced citizen and together discover the region, or the many different Danish professional or cultural peculiarities. You can choose between being a culture or a career host.

The Expat Host Program runs for 6 months and you do not have to do much. We will make sure you get a suitable match, and you only need to meet with your mentee once a month at least.

Are you ready to enjoy this experience?

Why should you become a host?

- You can share your expertise
- Boost your professional and cultural interests
- Get an International touch in your everyday life
- Guide and help other citizens
- It helps the city and the region
